
ACTM Fall Forum 2007

Taking the Mystery Out of Writing in Mathematics

October 25-26

Auburn University at Montgomery

Thursday, October 25 - Starting at 1 pm (Registration Begins at 12)

- Dr. William Massey, Princeton University - The Four Dimensions of Mathematics
- Chuck Sonenshein - You Don't Have to be a Magician, but it Helps
- Dr. Johnny Lott and Dr. Carolyn Lott - Mathematics Influences Art

Friday, October 26 - Starting at 8 am (Registration Begins at 7:30)

Extended 90 minute hands-on sessions for each grade band and 60 minute informative sessions for each grade band on various topics that affect teaching mathematics

Some of the Session Titles Include:

- Math: An Approach With Literature and Writing
- Alternative Forms of Assessment for Elementary Math
- Playdoh, Rice and Contests?
- Using Math Journals to Improve Math Calculation and Comprehension
- Modeling Functions With Data Analysis and Technology
- Movin', Groovin', and Graphing
- CSI- Tracks of a Killer: Using the TI-84 Calculator
- Who is Doing the Math in Your Classroom?
- Let's Play Math Looking for ARMT Clues
- Ins and Outs of Using the InterWrite Schoolpad
- Show Me the Movie
- Double Jeopardy - Preparing for Both the ARMT and NAEP Testing
- Math Poets and They Know it!

For more information go to <http://www.alabamamath.org>